

Revolution Gastropub in Morristown has an easy vibe, offers a wide range of brews

Sci-Fi Hamster Wheel. Sip of Sunshine. NY Pinstripe Pils. HopCyclone Hazy DIPA.

If you know these are creative names for beer and not rejected rock band monikers, Revolution Gastropub in Morristown is the place for you. This lively social brewhouse serves specialty craft IPA and draft beers, plus a menu chock full of satisfying pub grub favorites.

“We definitely attract the beer gurus and craft followers,” said Darrell Remlinger, operations manager at Revolution. “We utilize a digital menu system called Untapped, which has its own app. If you follow our menu on the app, it alerts you when a new specialty beer has been tapped at Revolution and exactly what it is.”

The industrial chic hotspot attracts a laidback crowd that enjoys Revolution’s easy vibe and wide range of brews, including more than 50 bottles and 40 drafts from New Jersey and all over the world. Seasonal beers and hard ciders are especially popular as the fall season gets underway and the celebration of Oktoberfest continues.

Tonight (Sept. 30), Revolution is hosting a Stein Hoist Competition from 7 to 9 p.m. featuring Samuel Adams Oktoberfest. Participants must hoist a very large stein filled with water — “We don’t want to waste good beer!” Remlinger said — and hold it up at their side, level with their shoulder. The person who keeps their arm up the longest wins a custom Sam Adams Oktoberfest stein. “It’s a fun, friendly competition. Everyone laughs and has a good time,” he said.

Another good time is Morristown’s Festival on the Green taking place Oct. 2. “We can’t serve alcohol outside, but we’ll have a tent out front with some festive fall food,” Remlinger noted. “Inside, the pub will be in full swing.”

In addition to Sam Adams, Revolution is featuring several other autumn-inspired beers and beverages. Drafts on tap include Autumn Blaze, Oktoberfest, Pumking and Pumpkinhead Ale. Devil’s Harvest is a cider-rosé with the flavors of fresh apple, sour cherry and wild Pine Barrens cranberry. More beverages that will conjure scenes of harvest hayrides under a full moon include Cran-Apple Mule, Bourbon Apple Cider and Pumpkin Old Fashioned.

Weekday Specials

Harvest beers and more are featured during Revolution’s Happy Hour, held Tuesday through Friday from 3 to 6 p.m., when patrons enjoy $2 off draft beer, bottled beer and wine.

Brewsday Tuesday featuring Troegs, held the second Tuesday of the month from 6 to 10 p.m., offers beer specials, giveaways and more.

“Wednesday nights, we have live music by soloists and duos who perform acoustic covers and some original music,” Remlinger said.

Every Friday is Frye Day Rye Day featuring hand-crafted Knob Creek Rye specialty cocktail for $10.

And for a limited time while supplies last, $2 from the purchase of every 16 oz. can of My Morristown Pink Lemonade Hard Seltzer will be donated to 911 Dog & Cat Rescue in Morristown. “We do as much as we can to support local organizations,” Remlinger noted.

Good Mood Food

To complement its specialty and craft beers, Revolution offers the kind of casual pub food that makes people happy.

The “Sharing” menu features an oversized Bavarian Pretzel served with cheese fondue and whole grain mustard. Other small bites include wings, fried pickles, candied bacon, empanadas and a hummus platter.

Signature juicy burgers include the Burrata with a 2 oz. burrata ball, tomato, pesto and balsamic glaze and You Don’t Know Jack, which is topped with a creamy Monterey jack fondue, arugula, tomato and red onion. Expertly stacked sandwiches offer more temptation for the taste buds. There’s a slow-smoked BBQ Pulled Pork sandwich, Nashville Crispy Hot Chicken Sandwich, Philly Cheesesteak and an Italian-inspired Grilled Chicken sandwich with fresh mozzarella, sliced tomato, basil and balsamic vinaigrette.

Entrees include Fish & Chips, Shrimp and Grits, and Steak Frites with chimichurri sauce and housemade fries.

“We have a special brunch menu on Sundays from noon to 4 p.m., but you can order off our regular menu as well,” Remlinger noted. Try the Hummus Avocado Toast or one of several new salads.

For special celebrations and large gatherings, Revolution has private and semi-private spaces that can accommodate up to 500 guests with a variety of food and drink packages.

Revolution Gastropub is located at 9 South St., Morristown. It is open Tuesday through Sunday from noon to 2 a.m. The pub is closed Mondays. For more information, call 973-455-0033 or visit www.revolutionmorristown.com.
